You are invited to the 60th Annual Conference of the Pacific Northwest International Section (PNWIS) of the Air & Waste Management Association (AWMA) to be hosted by the Inland Northwest Chapter in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. The conference will be held October 11-13, 2022 at the Coeur d'Alene Resort, 115 South 2nd Street, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Four tracks of technical seminars will be running Tuesday through Thursday covering an array of environmental topics.

Why Coeur d'Alene?

Coeur d'Alene is a lakeside town known for its proximity to numerous outdoor recreational activities. Thousands visit the Coeur d'Alene Resort each year to explore the many trails and waterways that surround it. Depending on the time of year, visitors can also golf at the world-renowned Coeur d'Alene Resort Golf Course, or shred some powder at one of three nearby ski resorts.

Coeur d'Alene is also home to a great amount of history. Approximately 40 miles east of Coeur d'Alene lies the Silver Valley. During the 19th and 20th centuries, the valley's mines produced millions of tons of silver, zinc, and lead, making it one of the most prominent mining areas in the world.

Why Exhibit?

- The PNWIS Annual Conference & Exhibition brings in qualified buyers. Many of those attending have purchasing authority.
- Attendees visit the exhibit floor. Many of the attendees plan to do business with vendors in the exhibition hall.
- You'll receive local, regional, state, national, and international exposure. Conference attendees, presenters, and speakers come from across the nation and the world to share ideas on environmental solutions, litigation, technology, regulations, and management.
- Your competitors and colleagues will be there. The PNWIS Annual Conference & Exhibition is noted by professionals as a key industry event.
- Exhibiting at the PNWIS Annual Conference offers a wide variety of opportunities to increase your company's visibility among its target audience.
